The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday June 29. to Thursday July 2. 1702.

Rome, June 17. N. S.

THE Count de Lamberg, Ambaſſador from the Emperor, returned hither the 12th Inſtant, the Pope having promiſed to comply with ſeveral Demands made by the Court of Vienna, and particularly to ſend from hence the Governor of Rome, a zealous favourer of the French Intereſt, which it is ſaid the Pope intends to do, by making him Legate of Urbino. The King of Spain has appointed Prince Borgheſe to be his Ambaſſador Extraordinary to the Pope, to return the Compliments made to him by his Legate a Latere. Letters from Naples of the 13th Inſtant give an Account, That on the 10th, upon the pretended Diſcovery of a Conſpiracy againſt the Government there, the Forces and Militia were all in Arms, the Garriſons of ſeveral Caſtles changed, the Guards in ſeveral Places doubled, and the whole City and the neighbouring Country under a very great Conſternation; all which ended in the ſeizing of the Duke de Noya Caraffa, the Prince of Trebiſaccio, the Prince of Forino, Don Lonenico de Luna, the Abbot Papacoda, Don Martino Jovenanzo, and divers other Perſons of Quality, with about 60 Officers, and 200 Burghers, upon ſuſpicion of their being in the Intereſt of the Houſe of Auſtria; whereupon the Duke of Airola, and divers other Perſons who are in the ſame Circumſtances, have abſconded.

From the Imperial Camp near Montanara, June 18. The 12th Inſtant, upon Advice that a Body of the Enemy's Troops were ſeen near Viadana, and that they have another Body between this place and the Oglio, a Reinforcement was ſent to the Garriſon of Ouiana, whither Baron Martini was alſo diſpatched with 400 Horſe with Orders to patrole along the Po. The 13th, our Huſſars made Excurſions againſt the Enemy, as indeed they do daily, with very good Succeſs. The 14th, a Captain, who had been abroad with a Party of about 80 Horſe, came home, having met near Guiglione 400 French Foot and 100 Horſe, who had been in Garriſon in that place, and being relieved, were returning to their Camp; Our Men attacked the Horſe, and obliged them to retire to their Infantry, and killed a Captain of Foot, a Lieutenant of Horſe, and 15 Troopers, and took ſome Priſoners, with ſeveral Horſes. The Enemy, as we were informed by Deſerters, continued to intrench themſelves, and have made a Bridge over the Oglio near Marcaria. The 15th, by break of day, the Enemy began to cannonade our Head Quarters at Curtatone from a Battery of 10 or 12 great Guns, which though they continued to do till late at night, yet we had not above 20 Men killed and wounded; but we were obliged to remove our Head Quarters to Montanara, Curtatone being too [illegible] the 16th, the Enemy, upon our alter[illegible] of our Camp, finding their Ba[illegible] them, demoliſhed it. [illegible] panies of the Regimen[illegible] Germany, arrived in our [illegible] has ſent an Account [illegible] Jan has made an [illegible] and has taken a [illegible] Troopers [illegible]

From the French [illegible] The 17th Inſtant at Night, we erected a Battery on the Bank of the Lake of Mantua [illegible] Virgil, where Prince Eugene has his Head Quarters; At the next Morning it began to play, and continued to do ſo till Night. The Germans likewiſe raiſed a Battery and Cannonaded our Camp, and killed ſome of our Men. They continue to intrench themſelves, and being apprehenſive of our believing [illegible] have provided for the Security of that place, by putting into it a ſtrong Garriſon well provided with Artillery and other Neceſſaries, and by caſting up ſome Intrenchments about it along the Lenza, where they have poſted a good Body of Forces to hinder our Troops from paſſing that Way. The 18th Inſtant, the Duke of Vendoſme being very much indiſpoſed, went to Mantua, where the ill ſtate of his Health obliged him to ſtay till this Day. Yeſterday one of our Parties of Horſe met and attacked a ſmall Party of Germans, of whom they killed 15, and took ſeveral Priſoners, [illegible] without ſome Loſs on our ſide. The King of Spain arrived at Milan the 18th Inſtant, and is expected here in 2 or 3 Days.

Vienna, June 24. The King of the Romans is on his departure to the Imperial Army before Landau. The Count de Schlick is returned hither from Munich, having prevailed with the Elector of Bavaria to grant Paſſage through his Territories to the Imperial Forces ordered to the ſaid Army; And accordingly ſeveral Imperial Regiments of Horſe and Foot that are marching thither from their Quarters in Bohemia, are ordered to paſs that way.

From the Imperial Camp before Landau, June 29. The 18th Inſtant, we proceeded in our Works before this Place; the Enemy fired very briskly upon our Men, however we had only a Lieutenant and 3 Soldiers wounded. Upon Advice that the Enemy deſign'd to march towards Weiſſenbourg, 2 Regiments of Horſe were ſent to reinforce our Troops poſted near that Place. The 19th, the Enemy continuing to Cannonade and Bombard us, we had 4 Men killed, and 9 wounded. The 20th, we finiſhed two Batteries each of 12 Pieces of Cannon 24 Pounders, and notwithſtanding the Enemy did not ceaſe all night to ply us with Bombs, and with great and ſmall Shot, yet we had but 4 Soldiers wounded. A Deſerter came over to us from the Town, who reports, That the Garriſon being but weak, Monſieur Melac has been forced to turn a Regiment of Horſe that is there into Foot, giving them Muſquets in lieu of their Carabines; and that they are continually upon Duty, either mounting the Guard, or employed in raiſing Batteries upon the Ramparts and in other neceſſary Works, and are conſequently extreamly fatigued. This whole day, notwithſtanding the conſtant Fire of the Enemy, we had only [illegible] killed, and another wounded. Several Pieces of heavy Cannon arrived this day in our Camp. The 21ſt, ſeveral Leaves were made for the Communication of our Attacks, which Work coſt 5 Men killed, and 12 wounded. Another Deſerter came over from Landau, who confirmed what the former had ſaid, That the Garriſon is very weak, and hardly duty, and very much harraſs'd. We received more heavy Cannon; Prince Lewis of Baden gave Orders not to carry on the Trenches any further, but to finiſh all the Works already begun. The 22d, another Deſerter came over to us, full of Complaints of the Hardſhips which the Soldiers of the Garriſon of Landau are forced to endure. Prince Lewis of Baden viſited all our Works and found them in good Forwardneſs, and he ordered the Trenches to be made deeper and wider. The reſt of our Field Artillery arrived here. We had this day 6 Men killed, and 8 wounded. The 23d, the Beſieged did not fire ſo briskly as before; we had 4 Men killed, and 6 wounded. Five Deſerters came to us from Marſhal Catinat's Army, who gave an Account, that he was come to Veyrio with 2000 Horſe to obſerve our Forces; but the reſt of his Troops, conſiſting of 27 Battalions of Foot, 20 Regiments of Horſe and 5 of Dragoons, remained [illegible]. The 24th, two of our Soldiers deſerted, but the Country People, in obedience to the Placart publiſhed by Order of our General, ſtopt them, and brought them back hither. We had 3 Men killed, and 7 wounded. The 25th, we carried on our Works near the Counterſcarp without any other Loſs than one Man killed and 5 wounded; notwithſtanding the Enemy fired very briskly upon us. This afternoon the Enemy ſallied out, to the number of near 200 Horſe, and about 150 of our Horſe being ſent to attack them, did it in ſome diſorder, which giving the Enemy a great Advantage, they ſoon broke this Body, and purſued them towards our Camp, till a Detachment of Foot came up and made a Diſcharge at the French, who then thought it time to retire. In this Sally we had 21 Troopers killed, and 16 wounded, and the Enemy, as we were ſince informed, had 25 Men killed and wounded. Orders were given for carrying forward our Works. The 26th, a Deſerter came from the Town, who ſays, many of the Garriſon being unable to go through the hard Labour they are put to, are taken into the Ranks. Other Deſerters came from Marſhal Catinat's Army, who ſay, he intends to march very ſoon from [illegible] to Brini. A Reinforcement of 2 Regiments of [illegible] with 6 field pieces, was ſent to the Camp at [illegible]